NOT DEAD, BUT SLEEPING!

The Tidal Wave has Come!

Woe to Those who Oppose its Progress

Ye slumbered too long, and now bitterly regret your past follies. TOO LATE! An overwhelming power surrounds you, and your feeble efforts are in vain. No use crying "SHODDY" and "JEW CLOTHING." It won't work. Maine people are capable of judging GOOD CLOTHING from POOR CLOTHING, and you only throw a "Rebounding Ball," which recoils to your own destruction.

NEW ADVANCED IDEAS CROWDING OUT THE OLD!

Pluck Instead of Luck! Cash Against Credit!

BRAINS IN PLACE OF CHEEK!

Science, Genius and Ambition beating back and [illegible] down these moonshine merchants with tough and tremendous long time prices.

No wonder the Frightful List of Failures all over the Country!

THEY DON'T BUY THEIR GOODS CHEAP!

Buying our Clothes of Houses and Mills HARD UP for money, and of every other source where goods can be bought at less than market value.

A Word in Dead Earnest.

Don't be Deceived by the Bombast of our Infant Competitors!

Their wholesale exhibition of cheek, their small display of brains, and their would be wit, almost tempts us to show them their natural position—

A Place of Servitude, and not of Prominence!

We forbear through pity. They are young men, just starting in life, with little or no experience, but an abundance of assurance and self esteem. Their store, size of ours, is but a nut shell. Their stock consists of the odds and ends of an old stock of Clothing carried along for the past ten years by a retired Clothier, perhaps Fifteen Hundred Dollars' worth in all. The balance of their stock consists of Shoe Strings, Fine Combs, Jewsharps and Paper Collars.

OUR UNPARALLELLED SUCCESS

Has created a great disturbance among the Clothiers of Bangor. They rave because we persist in advertising our LOW PRICES, and cry shame at such a sacrifice.

AND STILL THE GLORIOUS WORK GOES ON!

THE E. & N. A. RAILWAY AFFAIRS.

PLAN PROPOSED BY THE BONDHOLDERS.

The Committee selected at the recent meeting of the Land Grant Bondholders of the road to draw a contract, or devise some plan by which the road could for the present be managed satisfactorily to all concerned, will submit the following:

This memorandum of agreement made this 27th day of October, A. D. 1875, by and between the Consolidated E. & N. A. Railway Co., known and called hereinafter as the Consolidated Company party of the first part, and Benjamin E. Smith of Columbus, State of Ohio Trustee, under a certain mortgage deed made by said Consolidated Company bearing date December the fifth, A. D. 1872, party of the second part, and the owners and holders of the Bonds issued by the E. & N. A. R. Co., in Maine, known and called hereinafter as the Maine Co., and their Bonds as the Land Grant Bonds, and the owners and holders of the Bonds issued by the E. & N. A. Railway Co. in New Brunswick, known and called hereinafter as the New Brunswick Co., and their Bonds as the Westward Extension Bonds, parties of the third part, Witnesseth: That whereas, the Consolidated Company composed of the said Maine Co. and the said New Brunswick Co. has failed to pay the interest upon the indebtedness of said Maine Co. to the City of Bangor, and the interest Coupons upon the Land Grant and the Westward Extension Bonds, and desires to provide and secure the means of meeting its obligations growing out of the lease of the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad, and its contracts for the purchase of property at Bangor and St. John for depot, and track extension and facilities to the full extent of all sums necessary to be paid to give valuable rights and estates from forfeiture, and whereas the said Benj. E. Smith Trustee, as aforesaid, desires that the incumbrances, having priority to the mortgage under the provisions of which he is Trustee, upon said mortgaged property, shall be removed and cancelled. And whereas the bondholders and owners of said Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds are interested and desirous that said Consolidated Company shall be managed, strengthened and maintained in its most efficient and useful condition, and that all its property and rights shall be preserved without loss or waste, now therefore the several parties agree as follows:

The said party of the first part hereby surrenders to the party of the second part, the possession of all its Railways, including the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad, with all their appurtenances, and all its real estate belonging to said Consolidated Company, excepting the lands granted to said E. & N. A. Railway Co. in Maine, by the Legislature of Maine, and all rights and interests therein, and all rents and profits growing out of same, and all rolling stock and materials of every description in use or procured to be used in repairing, extending, improving and operating said railroads and assigns to said party of the second part, all debts, dues and demands, causes in action, and property and rights of every description, name and nature, wheresoever situated, belonging to said party of the first part upon the following conditions, viz.: That said party of the second part, in his said capacity as trustee under said mortgage and as assignee for all property, rights and interests not covered by said mortgage, shall forthwith enter into the possession and use of all said mortgaged and other property rights and interests, and by himself, or by agents by him appointed, collect, manage and operate the same. He shall keep an accurate account of receipts and expenditures of such roads and exhibit it on request, to any officer of the corporation or other person interested. He shall from the receipts, keep the roads, buildings, and equipments in repair, furnish such new rolling stock as is necessary, and the balance, after paying the running expenses, shall be by him applied as is provided in this agreement.

All parties to this contract agreeing that for the purpose of securing the most efficient working of said railroads and for protecting and preserving the rights and interests of all said parties, and of all the creditors of said party of the first part, the following named claims shall have priority of payment in the order herein stated, out of the before named property, and the profits and net proceeds of said mortgaged property, viz.:

First. The bills for purchases made since March 1st last, of fuel, sleepers and other materials used in the construction, repairs and working of the before described railroads, or purchased for such purposes, whether used or on hand, and the wages of all employes of said Consolidated Company since said March 1st, and in all cases in which notes have been given for such bills, such notes are not to be deemed payments, and are to be paid pari passu with said bills.

Second. The sums due the City of Bangor for interest paid on the Bonds of said city advanced to said Maine Co., secured by mortgage on the Railroad from Bangor to Winn, and interest to become due to said city on the Bonds, obligations and liabilities of said Maine Company, whether secured by said mortgage or growing out of the lease of the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad to said Maine Company, payments to be made as such interest shall become due.

Third. The interest and so much of the principal as shall from time to time fall due on the notes given by said Maine Company for the purchase of real estate in Bangor, and the sums to be paid for the purchase of the Carleton Wharf property, in Carleton, New Brunswick, so far as payments may be necessary for the preservation and protection of the rights of said purchasers and their successors from forfeiture.

Fourth. The sums due on two of the Consolidated Company's notes, holden by the Bangor Savings Bank, one being for twenty thousand dollars and one for eighty thousand dollars, and both endorsed by sundry parties, and also secured by a pledge of Bonds of the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad Co. for two hundred thousand dollars. [illegible] payment by [illegible] party of the second part, and by him to be delivered to the chairman of the Committee of Bondholders, [illegible] to redeem the [illegible] interest coupons on the Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds as hereinafter stated [illegible] and [illegible] all interest due and payable on said Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds shall have been paid, [illegible] Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad Co. Bonds are to be [illegible] by said chairman and surrendered to said Company.

Fifth. The interest [illegible] upon the bonds [illegible] Land Grant [illegible] and [illegible] dollars, and [illegible] of the [illegible] Extension Bonds [illegible] same shall become due.

Sixth and finally. All other indebtedness of the Consolidated Company, whether by bond, note or account, according to priority of right to payment.

But the payment of the two notes to the Bangor Savings Bank may be postponed in whole or in part to the payment of the interest on the Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds, at the discretion of the Committee of Bondholders, said Committee having due regard to the preservation of all rights to property and the saving same from forfeiture. And said surrender and assignment is made by the party of the first part on the further condition that a committee acting for and in behalf of the holders and owners of said Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds named hereinafter, as the Committee of Bondholders to be constituted and appointed as hereinafter stated, shall have an oversight of the management of said railroads and property and its earnings and income, so far as may be necessary to ensure the fulfillment of the conditions of this agreement, and the right at all times to inspect the account books of all parties having any charge of the affairs of the Consolidated Company, and to require from time to time as they may direct, full reports of all matters connected with said affairs and management, from any and all parties having any share in such management. It is agreed by all parties to this agreement that the lawful holder or owner of any overdue unpaid coupons of said Land Grant or Westward Extension Bonds shall be entitled to receive semi-annual interest on same from the date when default shall have been made in their payment, at the rate of six per cent. per annum in gold, such interest to be endorsed thereon when paid; and that any such holder or owner may, if he so elects, deposit such unpaid coupons with the chairman, for the time being, of said Committee of Bondholders, and receive from him his certificate, stating name of depositor, numbers and description of bonds to which such coupons belong, amounts due, and when interest is to be paid on the aggregate sums of such coupons, and that they are to be retained by him or his successor in office, in trust, for the term of ten years, with a proviso that they may be exchanged with the Consolidated Company for said certificate at any time when it shall have paid the principal and interest named therein, and that they are to be returned to the depositor or assignee of said certificate and exchanged for same, on demand made after the expiration of said ten years, with the proviso that in case of a default of said Consolidated Company in payment of said semi-annual interest, or in case the mortgage by which said coupons are secured shall be foreclosed, they shall be exchanged for said Certificate, on a demand made after the occurrence of such default or foreclosure, at any time within the ten years. All payments made on said Certificates to be endorsed thereon, and the same to be transferred to said coupons before the exchanges aforesaid are made. And it shall be the duty of such Committee from time to time, as they may judge expedient, and at least as often as once in six months, to make their report to the Trustees under the several mortgages by which the Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds are secured, relative to their doings as such Committee and as to the manner and completeness in which the provisions and conditions of this agreement are being observed by the several parties thereto. Said Committee of Bondholders shall consist of three persons, viz.:

of Bangor, Me., who shall be chairman,
and of New Brunswick,
and of Bangor, associates.

That in case of any vacancy in said Committee, by reason of non-acceptance, death or resignation, such vacancy shall be filled by an appointment made by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine, or in case of his refusal or inability to act arising from any cause, by the next senior judge of said Court, upon an application to be made by the owners or holders of either or both, of said Land Grant or Westward Extension Bonds aggregating ten thousand dollars, and that, upon an application made for the purpose by such parties owning or holding Bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars; said judge may, after a hearing, at his discretion, remove any such chairman or associate committee member and appoint another in his place, fourteen days notice in writing of the removal sought for, and the alleged reasons therefor, being first given by the applicants to the person whose removal is applied for, but no member of such Committee shall be removed until he is paid in full for all sums found due him by said judge. And whereas it is expected and believed that the appointment and services of such a committee will tend to inspire a confidence in the future good and prudent management of all the affairs of the debtor Company and thus be essentially beneficial to it, it is further agreed that all necessary expenses and disbursements made by said Committee of Bondholders and a reasonable compensation for their own services and time while employed in performing the duties of their offices shall constitute a charge upon said Consolidated Company and shall be paid by the party of the second part out of the receipts and earnings of said Company's Railways, as a part of the necessary cost and expense of the management of said property! And it is further agreed that, if at any time, the party of the second part shall surrender the possession of its Railways and other property to the party of the first part, he shall forthwith give written notice of such surrender to one of the Committee of Bondholders resident in the State of Maine and in the Province of New Brunswick each, if such there be, and that such possession may be retained so long as the managers of said Railways and property shall appropriate the earnings thereof and conduct the affairs of said Railways according to the terms of this agreement. And the parties of the third part, meaning such several corporations and individual holders and owners of Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds as shall accept and sign this instrument, agree, each engaging severally and not jointly, that the several parties whose signatures are affixed thereto, will forbear to take any measures to obtain possession of said Railways or any of the said property, or to foreclose the mortgages on the same, so long as said Trustee herein named or his successor in office, or in the possession and management of said Railways and property, shall appropriate the income and earnings thereof according to the terms of this agreement. And in case there shall be any default in such appropriations, or if the affairs of the said Consolidated Company shall not be managed to the satisfaction of said Committee, this agreement shall be void.

In witness whereof, we, the Consolidated E. and N. A. R. Co., by the President thereof duly authorized, and Benjamin E. Smith, Trustee as before stated, have hereunto signed this agreement in triplicate as of the 27th day of October, A. D. 1875, and we, the holders and owners of Land Grant and Westward Extension Bonds, whose signatures are hereto affixed, have severally and not jointly become parties thereto and signed the same.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN FRANCE.

The following passage from a speech delivered by M. Germain, Deputy of the Left from the Department of the Ain, is attracting much attention in France:

"On the eve of the general elections the question is not whether the present ministry, the perfect expression of the Chamber has retained its confidence, but whether the Assembly itself faithfully represents the country. In the county, after the disaster of Sedan, the defeat of [illegible] and [illegible] of the Constitution on February 24, there were 7,000,000 conservatives disposed to rally to the republic. Did the chief of the Cabinet [illegible] place himself at the head of these 7,000,000 conservatives who form the army of every government and represent at once order and democracy? What [illegible] [illegible] to save the republic? No; he systematically [illegible] [illegible] more than [illegible] to unite the three groups of the Left in the Assembly. By refusing to make the present Constitution a living reality he brought again into question the form of government, and forces the country itself to decide it at the next elections. By appearing to be ashamed of the republic of which he is the First Minister, he has given up the republic to its adversaries—viz., the Bonapartists and the monarchists, in the condition of an experimental system. By reviving the policy of the Septennate in spite of the February Constitution, he is now nothing more than a General without a flag. In the approaching battle, therefore, between the republicans, imperialists and monarchists, he will be without soldiers. In conclusion I ask you to drink at the same time to the health of Marshal McMahon, to the earliest date for the elections and to the triumph of the real conservatives. The conservatives, by rallying round the republic, which is now the flag of France, will be able to preserve our country from the three plagues which for a century have by turns desolated it—namely, reaction, radicalism and invasion."

TEMPERANCE LEGISLATION.

During the past two or three months there have been occasioned intimations that certain very sincere but more zealous than discreet persons, will seek to bring demands for additional legislation of some kind with reference to liquor selling, before the Legislature of this winter. Among these movements is one by Gen. Neal Dow who is inclined to push things with a strong hand, without caring to ascertain how far public sentiment may be relied upon for support of more stringent laws than the present. We believe that Gen. Dow not long ago delared in favor of hanging rumsellers a proposition which would hardly be approved by the majority of temperate temperance men, however much they may desire the suppression of the traffic in drunkenness, and while conceding to the author of the Maine Law his full share of credit as a reformer, we cannot regard him as a wise or safe counsellor when he urges the Legislature to take action which would increase the opposition to and prejudice against the present laws of prohibition. We are glad to see that the agitation proposed by Gen Dow is discountenanced by some of the most influential representatives of the temperance organizations, as is evidenced by the following editorial in the Brighton News whose editor, Maj. H. A. Shorey, is at the head of the order of Good Templars in this State

It is stated that Gen. Neal Dow, the father of the Maine Law, has started several petitions in Portland, and hundreds in the State asking the Legislature that the seller of intoxicating drinks shall be imprisoned for the first offence. Whether the statement is correct or not, we cannot say but we are aware that the General has long been of the opinion that the penalties for the violation of the liquor law should be made more severe, believing as he does that this is an effectual step towards securing the entire suppression of the liquor traffic

Much as we dislike to differ with so eminent an apostle of temperance as General Dow we nevertheless question the expediency of this movement. Indeed, could the Legislature be induced to pass such a law we fear it would be found to be a step backward rather than forward, in the Temperance Reform. With our present law there is but little difficulty in securing convictions and never have the liquor sellers pursued their evil practices at greater peril than at the present time. Public sentiment sustains the officers in enforcing the law and in more than three-fourths of the State the traffic has been driven into holes and by-ways where no respectable man will care to seek it. When General Dow's proposed law goes into force, imprisoning a man for selling a single glass of ale, the general public will be found characterizing the penalties as harsh and unreasonable, and the officers and juries who are now heartily co-operating with the Temperance men in the enforcement of the law will be compelled to yield to the adverse public sentiment which the proposed law must create, and seizures of liquors and the conviction of dealers will be few and far between

We think the general conviction prevailing among temperance men, is that the only additional temperance legislation needed is that of adding cider and native wines to the list of prohibited beverages. This change will be asked for the coming winter, and when this is secured we think our temperance friends generally will concede that we have all we have a right to expect in the way of legislation—law enough properly enforced, to entirely suppress the liquor traffic in this State. This law a large majority of our people are ready to sustain—more than this they will hesitate to do

Brother Shorey very candidly and sensibly states the reasons which make it injudicious to demand a radical increase in the severity of the prohibitory laws, but we think that a careful consideration of the subject must convince him that the objections apply with equal force to any further legislative interference with the temperance question at this time. While we have always given our strongest support to the prohibitory laws, we believe that they are already quite as sweeping as the popular sentiment will sustain, and we deprecate the renewed agitation of the cider clause as unnecessary and obviously inexpedient. The experiment of prohibiting what is regarded by thousands of temperate and temperance people as an entirely innocent and healthy beverage, has already been tried, and the reaction which necessitated its repeal showed that the whole prohibitory system may be imperilled by endeavoring to carry it too far. We are convinced that the present liquor laws are quite as stringent and comprehensive as the people of this state will at present sustain, and we can but regard the efforts to renew a political agitation of the subject in the Legislature as fraught with mischief to the temperance cause. At any rate we hope that the Legislature will not repeat the mistake of carrying prohibition to such an extreme as to excite ridicule and arouse all the latent elements of hostility to the system. The temperance organizations are engaged in a noble work, and their leaders are doubtless sincere in their action but they should learn that where public laws are concerned it is wise to let well enough alone.

The N. Y. Tribune in its supercilious denunciation of ex-Supervising Architect Mullett, suggests comparisons that are likely to prove odious. In a recent editorial lampooning of Mullett it expresses a fear that his buildings may make us "the laughing stock of the world and destroy all hope of a respectable national architecture." As the grand proportions of the new Post Office stand out in close proximity to that architectural nightmare called the Tribune Building, its readers who pass along Park Row will be likely to wonder how many thousand feet the Man of the Tower would have gone up if he had been given a post-office appropriation to build on

Miss Annie Louise Cary writes to a friend in Chicago, an amusing account of her first night in Moscow. Here are some extracts "The terrible night came, and I put on the war-paint with fear and trembling, and my eyes were double their size with excitement. I sang my complets, which open the second act of 'Trovatore'—and such applause! It was just like the Cincinnatians at the Festival (bless them). I had been told to make my first bow at a certain box, containing the Princes and Princesses, but for the life of me I couldn't tell which it was, so I stood still, as frightened as a goose, and then, in my misery, I bowed first to the 'plebs.' Horrors! When I came to my senses I bowed to the wrong box. After the Delirious Scene I was applauded and shrieked at until I thought the Modocs were on my track, and then I bowed to the wrong box again! After the close of the second act we were called out four times. By that time I knew where to bow, and I smiled my sweetest to 'the Royalties.' After the third act I was recalled three times, and after the entire opera we went out six times. The second time we sang the public was even more enthusiastic, and I had to go out alone in answer to the cries of 'Cary, solo.' They called for me also the first night, but I do not like to offend my sister and brother artists, so I went out with others at the end of the opera. I went out about six times, and such shouting and waving of hats and handkerchiefs! My success has been the event of the season thus far. You see they thought that nothing special could come out of Yankeedom. When I say I am an American they think I am from South America, which I hasten to explain by telling them I am the Yankeest of Yankees, and that I was born among the rocks of dear old Maine."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Mayor Doyle of Providence was re-elected Wednesday for the eleventh time.

The Independent Republican Club of Charleston serenaded Governor Chamberlain this year. Last year they mobbed him.—Columbia (S. C.) Union Herald

The official returns in New York thus far received indicate that there was not as full a vote out as there was last year. The Democratic vote, compared with last year, falls off in nearly every county so far as heard from

The Oswego, N. Y. Times puts it thus: "Well, we can worry along with both houses of the Legislature and a gain of 40,000 votes if the Democrats can. If Gov. Tilden thinks that is an 'indorsement' he is welcome to it."

The navy group of the Lincoln monument will be set up in the bronze department of the Ames Works at Chicopee in a few days, to see that it is all ready to be put in position at Springfield, Ill., and it will probably be shipped during this month.

The Worcester Gazette says: "We have heard very often within the last month that the Democrats were a hard money party. They say so themselves, in this State. Now, the Democrats have a handsome working majority in the next House of Representatives. Let us see what they do to bring about specie payment"

A despatch from Springfield says that Senator Dawes was injured at Pittsfield Friday afternoon, being kicked in the left leg by his horse. He was letting down some bars when the animal wheeled, and left the Senator prostrate. It was at a distance from any house, but a passing woman soon brought help. His injuries will not prove serious

In closing a review of the history of the Tammany Society the Troy Times says

"To us Tammany is known simply as a robbers' nest, using politics and the Democracy as an instrument to open the way into the public treasury. Its present status is the beginning of the end. It can never recover its old-time character, its corruption is too complete and absorbing."

The New York Herald thinks it is in the power of President Grant to secure the nomination of the Republican party next year for the Presidency for any member of the party who enjoys public confidence. But if he should force his own nomination he could not be elected, whereas any other candidate possessing the joint confidence of himself and the party might easily carry off the prize.

Weather Signs. About this time expect signs of a severe or mild winter to be pointed out by those estimable persons whose peculiar folly takes the direction of weather wisdom. The muskrats have dug holes with bay window and rear extensions on them, but, on the other hand, the beavers do not appear to consider the prospects of a severe winter worth more than an average dam. The ground hogs have laid in more than their usual supply of cord wood, and the red squirrels are putting up double windows, but the bark on the north-east side of dogs is not so thick as usual and, the crows have deferred purchasing passage tickets till after New Year's. Altogether the signs are contradictory, and not likely to induce a downward movement in coal.—[Chicago Tribune.

[illegible] REVIEW OF [illegible]

[illegible]

BUSTED.

Only One Week in operation and the thing has already BURST IN OUR MIDST!

But the Explosion excites only Smiles of Derision and not Howls of Rage

This is not the first Humbug that ever Collapsed under a Judicious Puncture.

SO EVER WITH FRAUD!

Immense Success in Deluding the People is always followed by Exposure and Disgrace.

An Ancient Authority bids us beware of Greeks Bearing Gifts.

In these later days the Greeks sometimes take the form of philanthropists in the clothing business. They offer New York Jew house clothing at nominally low prices but in reality at 25 per cent profit, strut their brief hour upon the stage, and depart some fine day bearing away the spoils, leaving the people who bought in haste to repent at leisure.

Our motto is Honest Goods at Honest Prices, and

IN HOC SIGNO VINCES,

Or, in United States, "In this sign we conquer."

The Invaders are already crying Sic Semper Tyrannis!

For the benefit of those whose classical education has been neglected, we will explain the meaning of their strange cry. The expression was first used by Wilkes Booth when he fired the fatal shot at President Lincoln. An Irishman who was present was summoned at the inquest and asked what were the words spoken by Booth when he leaped to the stage after firing the shot. "Faith your Honor," said he, "I think he sung out, 'I'm sick. Send for McGinnis'"

Having met with an obstacle in their attempts to hoodwink the public with the delusive cry of LOW PRICES for cheap goods, they have grown sick and SENT FOR McGINNIS, who comes to the rescue with a still more dazzling parade of big letters and, well, to draw it mildly, bigger misrepresentations.

Houses which manufacture statements to deceive the people cannot expect to compete with those who Represent Things as They are and give Honest Goods for Honest Prices.

OUR GOODS ARE NEW.

We have one of the largest and most complete assortments of

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS,

To be found this side of Boston.

WE BUY FOR CASH,

And sell the same quality of Goods at as Low Prices as any other concern no matter from where they hail. Call and Examine our Stock before purchasing elsewhere. We will give you

SATISFACTORY PRICES,

And convince you that Good Clothing, at Fair Prices, Is Better than Shoddy Clothing, at any price whatever Gents' Furnishing Goods.

We have constantly in stock a large assortment of Gents' Furnishing Goods, at prices to correspond with the times. It will be to your advantage to give us a call

For Shoddy Clothing let the fools contend;
That which is best is cheapest in the end.

Spofford, Congressional Librarian, and Charles F Herring, of Natick, Mass., sat up with the Vice President last night. Among those who called on him to-day were the Baron De Santanna, Portuguese Minister; Clinton B. Fish, and Rev. R P. Stebbins, of Massachusetts.

Some of the inhabitants of Hancock street indulged in a free fight between twelve and one o clock yesterday morning. Officers Reed and Dougherty were obliged to remain constantly on that street from the time they came on to their beat Saturday evening until midnight, owing to the prevalence of an unusual amount of drunkenness and fighting.

The meetings in Hammond street vestry, on Friday and Saturday evening of last week, were well attended, and of much interest. Those present on the last evening, representing persons from different denominations, voted that it was desirable to hold another meeting this evening, in the same place. The vestry will therefore be open this evening for like exercises, commencing at 7½ o'clock. All are invited.

The three-masted schooner Jesse W. Starr arrived early Saturday morning loaded with the last cargo of water pipes. The Captain received such injuries from striking the rail, that he has been unable to use his right leg which is severely bruised.

NARROW ESCAPE. One of the ... members of the vestry of the Union street ... while a Sabbath school concert was in session, and the floor settled about eight inches in some places. The concert was postponed until next Sunday evening; but a prayer meeting was held in the audience room of the church. It is very fortunate that no one was injured, and those who were present thought they had a narrow escape.

REV. DR. FIELD ON LECTURE COURSES. In his announcement of Rev. Mr. Angier's lecture at the vestry of the Central church this evening, Rev. Dr. Field took occasion yesterday to refer in a brief way to the beneficial effect of good lecture courses upon a community such as ours He thought they had an elevating and educating tendency, and recommended all good citizens to encourage and patronize such entertainments, urging it as a part of the duty of a good citizen and Christian. He spoke of the course which opens to-morrow evening with readings by Mrs. Siddons, as one of a high intellectual order, and remarkably well selected, and which should commend itself to the patronage of his hearers.

AN HONORABLE DECORATION. Among the battle-scarred veterans of Post Safford, at Dexter, is Sergeant Otis O Roberts, who received and holds one of the few medals of honor presented by Congress to private soldiers for acts of conspicuous gallantry. H., of the Sixth Maine, for his bravery in wresting a rebel flag from the hands of a rebel color-bearer and bearing it off in triumph at the battle of Rappahannock Station Sergeant Roberts was afterwards so severely wounded as to necessitate the amputation of one foot, at the battle of Cedar Creek, when Sheridan rallied our disorganized forces and sent Early "whirling down the Shenandoah Valley."

INCENDIARY FIRE. As the watchman at the jail was walking in the rear of one of the city stables, last night, about eleven o clock, he noticed that a fire was burning briskly under it He immediately gave an alarm and rang the jail bell. The Babcock —with its usual promptness—was almost instantly on the spot, and in a few moments the fire was put out, the engine using less than half a tank of chemicals. The scene of the fire was in the basement of the old stable, where five barrels of tar were stored. An empty flour barrel was saturated with tar, and after being ignited, was placed on top of the tar barrels. The fire was burning fiercely when discovered, and the ease with which it was extinguished by the Greyhound, shows the practical value of that machine A general alarm was not sounded, as it was thought to be unnecessary. It is to be hoped that efforts will be made to solve this mystery, as such good fortune in arresting the flames may not always happen

TEMPERANCE MEETING The Reform Club meeting yesterday afternoon was fully attended. Vice-President Richardson, presided The exercises commenced by singing "Nearer my God to Thee," and a prayer by Mrs Works, of the Women's Crusade. The first speaker introduced was B E. Walker, of the Club, who was followed by O Hinckley, Esq., Vice-President of the Hampden Reform Club. John Green of our own Club then entertained the large audience by his quaint way of telling how much better he had lived by totally abstaining from all that intoxicates The other speakers were Mr J A. C. Mason, J. F. Montgomery, Wm Doughty, J. L. Randall, of the Bangor Reform Club, and Mr. A. C. Roberts of the Hampden Reform Club. Miss Fannie H. Hinckley, of Hampden, read "The Bridal Wine-Cup," in an excellent manner, and to the acceptance of all. Miss Hattie Rich presided at the organ It is noticeable that the ranks of the Club are fast filling up with those who are not afraid to say "I dare to do right."

THE HANDEL ASSOCIATION. The Handel rehearsals begin this evening at 7½ P. M., at City Hall. We are requested to state that the Secretary is selling tickets rapidly at his office, and those who have not yet purchased theirs should do so to-day, and also sign the Constitution if they have not already done so. As this Association is yet young and with but a small fund in the Treasury, the members are expected to purchase their glee-books this week. This they can well afford to do, as the annual assessment is very small compared with other organizations of the kind, and the book is a marvel of cheapness at the price asked, viz 75 cents in paper and $1 25 substantially bound To correct a misapprehension on the part of some members, we are requested to state that those who have heretofore been members, are not required to pass examination this year; but persons wishing to join the class this year, for the first time, are required to apply in person to the councillors as named in the advertisement in another column.

A TERRIBLE FATALITY.

A Young Lad Accidentally Killed at the E. & N. A. Depot—Attempts to Get on a Moving Train—A Stumble and Fall Beneath the Wheels—Death Almost Instantaneous.

The hearts of many were made sad Saturday afternoon upon hearing of the fatal accident which occurred at the E. & N A. Railway station. The unfortunate victim was J. W. Noyes, a young lad about 17 years old, the only son of his widowed mother who resides on Court street. He was in the employ of J T. Rines & Co., and had left the store to carry a package to a lady at the 5 o'clock train The train was backing into the depot and young Noyes ran from the freight depot to the baggage car. As the train was moving slowly he attempted to step on to the car and was running alongside of the steps with his hand on the railing, when he stumbled against a bag of rags lying at the upper end of the platform. This caused him to lose his hold, and he tried to regain his balance; but not succeeding he seemed to fall headlong under the middle of the baggage car, the last two wheels of which passed over his body, breaking two vertebræ. He was immediately picked up and carried into the baggage room of the depot and laid on mattresses. He seemed to breathe only a few times after being carried into the room and was not conscious for a moment after the accident. A physician was promptly on hand, but the young man had breathed his last before he reached the depot. As he was quickly dressed his body was not cut at all. The friends of the young man were immediately informed of the accident, and Mr. A. W. Noyes, his uncle, and Mrs. Noyes, his mother, went to the depot with the expectation of finding him alive. The scene which there took place when Mrs. Noyes was informed of the death of her son, was such as to move the hardest heart to tears.

Coroner J. H. Wilson was called and decided that the inquest should be held yesterday morning at nine o'clock. The following gentlemen were summoned as jurors C. H. Getchell, G. L. Brown, Scott Dunbar, M. S. Trask, Harford Pond and Charles Sinnott. A number of witnesses were examined and stated substantially what we have related above. The verdict of the jury is, in substance, that the young man met his death accidentally, and no blame is attached to the employes of the road.

The young man was a good salesman, and had been employed by J. T. Rines & Co. for the past two years, during which time he has made many friends by his pleasing and genial manner. Previous to his engagement as clerk in the store, he was one of the carriers of this paper for a number of years, and always did his work in a faithful, trustworthy manner. As a school boy he was always popular with his mates, being affable and agreeable. He was always very fond of his home, and on the day of his accident bade his mother good bye when he went to the store after dinner, and tripped joyously and happily out of the house. At the time of his death he was beginning to be of real value to his mother. The sudden death of a young man just budding into manhood is always to be regretted; but the circumstances in this case are particularly sad, and the many friends of his mother will deeply sympathize with her in the terrible loss which she has sustained.

Police Court.

Police Court business was rather lively Saturday John Gallagher was up on a search and seizure warrant and fined $50 and costs Charles Thompson was committed for 30 days for drunkenness. Albert Wood was fined $10 and costs for pushing a lady off the sidewalk and being unable to pay was carried to jail. R. Anderson, a tramp, was sent up for 30 days on a charge of vagrancy. Thomas Moor was also sent up for 30 days for drunkenness. William Peters, a tramp, helped to swell the number for 30 days. Joseph Sheridan followed his brother tramps, and will keep them company for 30 days. Ed Duffy was up for drunkenness, and released on a suspended mittimus. Shannon Donahue was committed for 30 days for drunkenness

Up-River Items.

Our correspondent Nopen writes from Winn, Nov. 13th Nothing has occurred lately of any particular interest. A slight falling out occurred between two young men, Gilbert Williams and Gordon McKay on the 11th inst, while they were sparring, As they continued the sport, they grew excited and angry, and the result was McKay lost his left ear

In Danforth I noticed the completion by Granville Goodwin of a dwelling house near the depot.

Cornelius Webber, formerly of Bangor, is now W. C. T. of Sylvan Lodge, at Mattawamkeag.

Mrs. N J Reed, of Winn, is quite dangerously sick The Rev Thomas Marsden, formerly of Winn, and more recently of Dresden, is now connected with the Episcopal churches of Exeter and Dexter residing at Dexter. A series of six lectures has been arranged by the Entertainment Committee of Silver Star Lodge, of Winn. Rev. James Davis will deliver the first about the 30th inst.

A GRAND ARMY REUNION.

The First "Camp-fire" of Safford Post, G. A. R., of Dexter—Numerous Delegations from other Posts—

A Banquet at the Town Hall—Music, Toasts, Speeches and a Good Time Generally—The "Camp-fire" a Decided Success

The first "Camp-fire" of H. F. Safford Post, G A R, of Dexter, held on Friday evening 12th inst., in the handsome and commodious Town Hall of that thriving village, proved a decided success not only in point of attendance but also in the interesting character of the exercises. The officers of Post Safford are: Commander H L Wood, Senior Vice-Commander G. W Pratt; Junior V. C. Daniel Staples; Adjutant J. D. Maxfield, and they represent a fine body of the veterans who responded to the Nation's call upon Maine in the hour of battle. Large delegations from Post Beale, of Bangor, Post Heath of Waterville and Comrades from Dover, Guilford, Kenduskeag and Skowhegan, with other invited guests reached Dexter by train at 8 o'clock, and were met at the depot by Post Safford with the Dexter Brass Band and escorted to the Town Hall. The veterans were pleasantly greeted by the citizens along the route and received a hearty welcome at the Hall, which was brilliantly lighted and decorated for the occasion, the long tables, bountifully supplied with good things, presenting a most inviting appearance. The wall at the rear of the stage was draped with the National colors, surmounted by a large American Eagle, and on the front of the stage were stacks of arms and other military emblems

The members of the Post and visitors were at once invited to seats at the tables while a fine choir consisting of Mrs. Alice DeWitt, Miss Lizzie Wood, Miss Fannie Bradbury, Mr. Levi Bridgham and Mr. Charles Mower, with piano accompaniment, very effectively rendered a "Song of Welcome." Post Commander Wood, then made a brief address cordially welcoming the guests to the first camp-fire in Dexter, and called on Rev. L. L. Hanscom to invoke the Divine Blessing. As the Chaplain concluded Comrade Winslow seized the bugle from the stack of muskets and made the hall ring with the familiar "call to rations," which was promptly recognized and loudly applauded by the "vets." All hands then gave attention to the excellent repast furnished by the ladies of the Post, who personally served the refreshments and were unremitting in their courtesies. The town officers and a number of prominent citizens, including Representative-elect Hamilton, with their ladies, were also the guests of the Post, while the galleries were occupied by spectators. The Dexter Band (in which we noticed that Brother Robbins vindicated the professional attribute of a good blower) were stationed on the stage and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion by their stirring music. When the commissary department had withstood a most vigorous onslaught without the slightest sign of a failure in the supplies, Senior Vice-Commander Pratt, the Toast-Master of the evening, arose and proceeded to victimize a number of modest and unsuspecting individuals by calling upon them to respond to sentiments proposed. On behalf of one of the number we are almost tempted to take revenge upon comrade Pratt now that we have him at the mercy of printer's ink, but as he tempered his despotism with a soothing politeness, we lower the point of our pen and "shake hands across the chasm." We had our revenge at the time upon the good-looking young officer from this city, who said he had prepared four or five speeches, all of which seemed to him first class, that he had read them to his wife, and she had assured him that "at any rate they were better than any speech the editor of THE WHIG could make!" In his attempt to disparage our editorial powers he had buried a boomerang, by inadvertently confessing himself a married man, and thereby putting a summary stop to sundry flirtations with the belles of Dexter. When we looked around the hall and thought of "the other hearts that would ache" we pitied that young man and forgave him. We give below the order of exercises after supper, with the brief remark that "after the ice had been broken" by the first victim, the speeches were quite interesting, some of them especially happy, and all of them full of patriotism, and cordiality. Hon. J. H. Rice received an enthusiastic greeting, Capt. Small proposing three cheers for the gentleman who as member of Congress had proved himself so truly the soldiers' friend, and they were given with a will, Mr. Rice appearing sensibly affected by the warmth of the tribute The following is a list of the regular

BANGOR, Nov. 11th, 1875.

Mr Daniel Staples, Chairman Committee of Arrangements H F Safford Post, G. A. R.

It would give me great pleasure to accept your invitation to be present at the Camp Fire of your Post next Friday evening, but I shall not be able to do so. Allow me through you to give the following sentiment:—

The members of the G. A. R.—Nobly and bravely they came to their country's defence in the hour of her sorest need and drove back the armed foe that imperilled her life May they with equally noble and brave hearts throw themselves to the front in that conflict of principles now going on in our country and help strike down the foes which threaten her highest prosperity.

Very truly yours,
A. BATTLES

BANGOR, Nov 10th, 1875.

H. L. Wood, Esq., Post Commander, G A. R., No. 8, Department of Maine

My Dear Sir—Please accept my thanks for the kind invitation to be present at a "Camp-Fire" to be held by Post H. F. Safford at Dexter, on the 12th of Nov.

I can only say it would afford me much pleasure, did my past services in a military way entitle me to the honor.

Be so good as to accept my thanks for the invitation and my high regards for yourself and the comrades of your Post, and all comrades associated with you in your noble organization.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant,
DAVID BUGBEE

The Adjutant also gave scope to his humorous propensities which are of a keen order, provoking great merriment by some of his witty observations. He also read the following letters supposed to have been received by "underground mail" from the distinguished gentlemen whose names are appended

HEADQUARTERS, MASS MILITIA, November 7th, 1875

To the Adjutant of H F. Safford, Post No 8, G A. R., Dexter, Maine.

Dear Sir—Your invitation to attend your Camp-Fire on the 12th inst. is before me, and it would afford me (and your comrades, doubtless), great pleasure if I could be present and respond to the sentiment you suggested to me, viz: "The cock-eyed General, or Ben Butler bottled!" But various circumstances exist which will make my absence from your gathering unavoidable

In the first place my teeth are so poor that I cannot eat Grand Army rations and I am compelled to make my diet wholly of spoon-victuals Secondly, I am collecting in all my soft money preparatory to investing in a gold mine. And lastly, I am employing every spare moment in hunting up my Irish ancestry, for I have felt of late the blood of Green Erin coursing in my veins, and a rich brogue is commencing to roll from my tongue. The masses applaud me and say, "How are you Ben?" etc, as they did when I led my Division to Bunker Hill last June, but some of my enemies say I am a knave, and others that I am an ass.

Hoping that you will eat just as many beans as there is any necessity for, I subscribe myself, yours in Felicity, Chastity and Longevity,

B F. BUTLER.
Maj-General.

To the Adjutant of H. F. Safford Post No 8, G. A. R., Dexter, Maine

Dear Comrade,—Your cordial invitation to me to be present at a Camp Fire to be held by your Post, was duly received. I would be glad to attend, but must decline because I have learned by Mr. Wormelle, formerly of your place, who dropped in to see me last night, that smoking is prohibited in your Town Hall, and a Camp Fire without a cloud of smoke from pipes and cigars wouldn't be worth a Continental to me; although I admire beans as much as Matt. Carpenter admires the women, or Bill Allen admires an inflated currency. Yet after beans I must smoke. In the language of the immortal Hood:

"Some sigh for this and that,
My wishes don't go far,
The world may wag at will,
So I have my cigar.

"Ambition frets me not,
A cab, or glory's car
Are just the same to me,
So I have my cigar"

I have heard of Dexter and of the interest your people take in the Common Schools. Give to every child growing up in your community the opportunity of a good common school education, unmixed with sectarian, pagan, or atheistical dogmas, and may be some one of your boys will, in after years, when manhood matures his powers, be elected to the Presidency of this great nation——unless that office should become hereditary in my own family.

Give my special regards to Toast-Master Pratt and tell him that I have my eye on him for Attorney-General, and that he will doubtless receive the appointment at the commencement of my "third term "

Hoping that your beans will be eaten with a good relish by the comrades and that all will go off rejoicing, and also hoping that the visiting comrades will smoke somewhere, I remain

Yours in F., C. and L.,
U. S. GRANT.

There was also a communication in Hiawathan verse, which for want of space and other reasons, we are unable to present, but which was quite pointed in its allusions and technical in its treatment of the experiences of army life. The Camp-Fire was kept brightly burning to a late hour, and the bean pots and coffee kettles were constantly ready for action, the indefatigable Bugler manifesting a desire to sound the "call for rations" at least as often as every fifteen minutes. The Comrades of Post Safford and their ladies left nothing undone in providing for their guests, who with the exception of a few who resorted to the hotel were provided by the citizens with accommodations for the night. On Saturday morning, after much hand-shaking and cheering at the depot, the visitors departed on the train, unanimously voting the first Camp-Fire at Dexter a decided and gratifying success.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic It is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States Sold everywhere. 1t nov15

The throat is a peculiar organ—always at work, and will bear about everything but a neglected cold, which produces irritation and a tickling cough. No time should be lost in arresting the disease at this point, where "Consumption can be cured," for this often proves to be the first stage of that awful disease. For those slight attacks there is no better remedy than the "Forest Tar Troches"—none so good If taken in season they will allay the irritation and relieve the hacking cough They may be found at the druggists' with the "Forest Tar Book. d&w1w nov10

BORACINE. A New York periodical of fashion, speaking of the injurious effects of all preparations for the hair containing sulphur lead, oils and glycerine, asks "What shall we do for our hair?" HOW THE OLD AND INFIRM ARE SUPPORT ED BY FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES

During the vigor of youth the expenditure of the power of the mind (which is the real seat of man's strength) is balanced by activity of the nutritive functions, without the aid of science.

But Time, the everlasting dissipator of reason as of events, sets a limit to his power, and it is at this epoch that science may render to man the desired assistance, and restore the drain upon his wasted energies

Each effort of the mind, every act of the body, will extract a volume of nervous element in proportion to the magnitude of the thought or action, and since this Hypophosphite combination really will supply the ... to the body, it must support the human mechanism successfully after the vigor of youth is past. d&w nov12

These Pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

UNDER THE ROSE.

BY KATE PUTNAM OSGOOD.

They [illegible] porch together,
Angry and pale and still,
And watched, in gloomy silence,
The moon rise over the hill.
The fault of the foolish quarrel
Is his or hers, who knows?
The strangest things will happen
Under the rose!

A little star in the shadow
Shook down a drop of dew
That, out of a bud half-open,
Fell just between the two.
If both of them turned together
With a sudden start, who knows?
There is many a little rustle
Under the rose!

He pulled from the vines at random
A cluster over her head,
Leaning a little nearer,
To see if the rose was red.
If other roses reddened
Within his reach, who knows?
One dare not say what happens
Under the rose!

THE FIRST CHINESE IRONCLAD.

[From the London Times's Shanghai Correspondence.]

The first Chinese ironclad has been just completed. I cannot say launched, because she stopped halfway down the ways, and refuses to be persuaded further. I suppose, however, that the hatch is only temporary. She is a small vessel of only 195 tons measurement, 104 feet length on load line and 20 feet 4 inches extreme breadth. Her armor is 2½ inches thick amidships, tapering to 1½ inches at the extremities, and having 4½ inches of teak backing. She is armed with a 6½ inch Krupp gun, and has a ram bow. Her offensive power has been much diminished by the Chinese insisting on having the gun fixed. Nothing would persuade them that if the gun were brought over to fire from either side the vessel would not inevitably heel over and capsize, so the gun had to be placed permanently in the middle of the bow, and only one porthole exists for firing forward. Of course it will be understood that she was designed by an English architect and built under English supervision. The Chinese can do nothing for themselves yet, with all their appliances. The workmen are intelligent and apt enough, but the knowledge necessary for designing is completely wanting. I am almost inclined to doubt whether they are capable of ever acquiring, or rather applying it. Very certainly—what is more to the purpose now—they are thoroughly incompetent to handle or fight an iron clad effectively. In the event of a war all these ships on which they are wasting money that would be far better laid out on railways would be captured in a fortnight.

THE LONDON MARRIAGE MARKET.—A sad sight in London society is the man of [illegible] half a dozen seasons disenchanted of the [illegible] delight in merely [illegible] in their hope of a good marriage. They remind one of the statue of salt which Lot left in the wilderness, its blank face turned wearily to the city whence no more good could come. A Well-Merited Success.

As contrasted with fortunate charlatanism, well-merited success is less frequent than it ought to be. Bitters [illegible] assertion and coined recommendations too often, for instance, give an ephemeral popularity to medicinal compounds intrinsically worthless at the expense of really deserving remedies and to the grievous detriment of the sick. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a tonic alterative which has achieved one of the best merited and most signal successes of the nineteenth century has never relied upon such methods of manufacturing a reputation, nor has the competition of counterfeiters ever affected its reputation in the slightest degree. That it is the best remedy for malaria and the surest safeguard against it, that it eradicates dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, disorders of the kidneys and bladder and the various causes which produce weakness, are implicit and well founded beliefs with the great body of the American people. d&w1w nov12

Enameled WATER PIPE.

This pipe is enameled under great heat, both inside and out, which gives it a hard jet gloss surface and preserves it from rust or corrosion. S. Dana Hayes, State Assayer and Chemist for the State of Massachusetts, says: "I commenced the investigation with some doubt about your Enameled Pipe, but the severe tests which I have employed prove that it is perfectly harmless, and possesses great durability, these being the properties of most importance in water pipes."

All sizes of this and plain pipe and fittings constantly on hand, and for sale at lowest market prices.

WHIG & COURIER.

1875—VOL. XLII.

Daily Established 1834 Weekly 1815.

BOUTELLE & BURR, - - - - Proprietors.

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR.

In announcing the Forty-second Volume of this standard Newspaper, the Proprietors beg leave to state that during the past year they have incurred large expense in thoroughly refitting their establishment, and are determined to spare no effort in maintaining its high character as

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State, have made important additions to our Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

FIRST CLASS DAILY NEWSPAPER.

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the ASSOCIATED PRESS, by which we receive the whole of their despatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports

of the proceedings of Congress, the State Legislature, meetings of Agricultural Societies and other public bodies, carefully corrected Financial and Market Reports, a reliable Shipping List, original and selected Stories and Poetry, a large amount of instructive and entertaining Miscellany, and a very full department of

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being among the best classes of the people, and as this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in but with all its best features retained and with such improvements as we trust will insure an increase of that support which it has hitherto enjoyed.

The Only Morning Daily East of the Kennebec.

An Entirely New Dress,

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 1 to 3½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left-hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32 80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All Letters must be Pre-paid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, if papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre-payment compulsory, merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE

One cent an ounce, or fraction, weight limited to four pounds. Liquids, and anything that will injure mail excluded. All matter of this class must be wrapped, so as to be examined, without destroying wrappers.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15,	10 cents
